- VI. Old Business: Matthew Varner researched the flammable storage container for gas can storage at Stevens Elementary School. After looking into this, OSHA section 1926.152 states "quantities under 25 gallons are not required to be stored in a flammable liquid storage container". All of the stored gas is in approved containers and we are under the allowed 25 gallons. He does not recommend purchasing a flammable liquid storage cabinet at this time.

VII. New Business:

1. Privilege of the floor
