CHALLENGES and OPPORTUNITIES

MESSAGE FROM DR. JOSEPH PADASAK, CASD SUPERINTENDENT

THIS PAST YEAR was full of challenges for the Chambersburg Area School District. Maintaining quality instruction with fewer resources has been a test for all of us. Even so, our board members have approached the job with humility and a dedication to improved student learning. Our administrators have stood up for public education and what is best for children. Our support staff have been the glue that holds things together, no matter how crazy. And our very valuable asset, our teachers, have maintained focus despite the diversity of learners and have continued to instill a love of learning, the value of hard work, and self-discipline.

We all have the opportunity and obligation to make sure every student succeeds. In 2009-2010, we saw positive academic growth across the district. But regardless of test scores and the gains we've made, every school has the potential to improve for our children. Our goal is at least one year's worth of academic growth for every student every year.

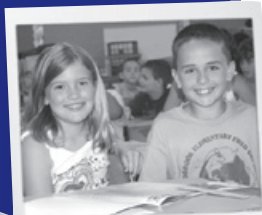

Challenging times have a way of refocusing us on what's important and why we're here. Our mission is to prepare all students for success as responsible citizens and lifelong learners, and our commitment to that mission remains unchanged.

Please feel free to contact me anytime for any reason related to public education in Chambersburg at (717) 261-3300 or padasjos@chambersburg.k12.pa.us.

HOW CAN I HAVE A VOICE IN THE CASD?

The Parent Advisory Council is an advocacy group of parents and community members that provides a regular forum for discussion of issues and policies that impact public education. Meetings are held the second Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the CASD administration building, 435 Stanley Avenue. To learn more, visit www.chambersburg.k12.pa.us/pac.

HOW CAN I VOLUNTEER IN THE CASD?

From classroom aides to guest readers, there are a number of opportunities to volunteer in our schools. For more information about how to get involved, please contact one of our assistant superintendents: Cathy Dusman at 261-3419 or dusmacat@chambersburg.k12.pa.us, Bill Hodge at 261-3303 or hodgebil@chambersburg.k12.pa.us, or Eric Michael at 261-3426 or michaeri@chambersburg.k12.pa.us.

THE CHAMBERSBURG Area School District covers 250 square miles in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, near the center of the Cumberland Valley. More than 61,000 people live in the district, which is composed of the Borough of Chambersburg, Greene, Hamilton, Letterkenny, and Lurgan townships, and most of Guilford Township.

The school district's enrollment is nearly 8,800 students, making it the 22nd largest of Pennsylvania's 500 school districts. CASD also ranks 37th out of 500 in geographic size.

WHY ARE MY SCHOOL TAXES GOING UP?

In 2008-2009, the nationwide economic recession resulted in lower than projected revenue for the school district from the earned income tax and property transfer tax. The resulting budget deficit was closed thanks to the adoption of a district-wide hiring freeze, elimination of all spending not essential to classroom learning, implementation of a four-day summer workweek, and other measures.

The recession and lower tax revenue persisted this school year. Thanks in large part to a retirement incentive offered to teachers and administrators, we've been able to reduce staff through attrition. The 2010-2011 budget includes a $3 million reduction of 39 positions as well as a 5.5% real estate tax increase. A combination of lower spending and higher taxes was the only way to bridge the deficit for this coming school year.

2010-2011 Revenue by Source

Budget Facts

Budget expenditures for 2010-2011 are expected to be 2.12% higher than 2009-2010, calling for the local real estate tax rate to rise from 84.948 mils to 89.621 mils, or about $49 for every $100,000 of assessed value.

The district applied for exceptions from the state to raise the real estate tax rate by more than the Act 1 index of 3.4%, resulting in an overall increase of 5.5%. These exceptions were for special education, construction, and retirement system contributions.

17,083 property owners qualified for a homestead or farmstead exclusion and saw an estimated reduction of $563 in their tax bills on July 1, 2010.

1,188 property owners received no real estate tax bill due to property tax reduction measures.

MEDICATION POLICY

Beginning with the 2010-2011 school year, no over-the-counter or prescription medications will be administered to students by district nursing staff without an individual medication order from a physician. This means our school nurses' offices will no longer be stocking Tylenol, cough drops, or any other medication.

In the past, a local physician would sign a blanket standing order permitting the district to administer over-the-counter medication to students. Due to liability concerns and the increasingly complex health needs of some students, these standing orders will no longer be in place.

For more information about this important policy change, please visit www.chambersburg.k12.pa.us/healthservices.

HOSTING THE COUNTY

More than 1,500 teachers from across Franklin County gathered in the newly completed CASHS gymnasium on August 26 to hear from nationally acclaimed speaker, former American Teacher of the Year, and New York Times best-selling author Ron Clark. It was the first time a countywide in-service had been held in five years.

The new CASHS field house opened for the 2009-2010 school year. The facility includes a 2,400-seat gymnasium, fitness center, classrooms, concession stand, team store, and trophy cases.

Building Blocks of EDUCATION

A $73.8 MILLION construction and renovation project at the Chambersburg Area Senior High School that began in April 2008 is moving into its final stages. When the work is completed in January 2011, CASHS will have more than doubled in size to 510,367 square feet.

(Below) Construction crews are working on a new performing arts wing behind the auditorium, renovating the administration wing, and building a new library.

Student Performance RISING

EACH YEAR, students in grades 3-8 and 11 take part in the Pennsylvania System of School Assessment (PSSA). These exams fulfill requirements of the federal No Child Left Behind Act, giving us the opportunity to examine the learning progress of every student.

In 2009-2010, districts, schools, and student subgroups in Pennsylvania had to achieve 56% proficiency in math and 63% proficiency in reading or show improvement over last year to make adequate yearly progress. This measurement gives us a way to make sure every child is successful, not just an overall school. According to No Child Left Behind, 100% of students must achieve grade-level proficiency by 2014.

- CASD made adequate yearly progress (AYP) for the third consecutive year.
- 15 of 17 CASD schools made AYP.
- CASD met 83 of 86 district-wide targets—three more than last year.
- CASD met 253 of 257 school building targets.
- AYP includes participation and performance on the math and reading assessments as well as attendance and graduation rates.

SAYING GOODBYE

Coldbrook Elementary School closed its doors in June after decades of educating Chambersburg students. Keeping Coldbrook open would have required $1 million in renovations, and CASD has been consolidating "one-deep" schools with new buildings that serve as efficient state-of-the-art community schools with resources for all children. Coldbrook's students will be moving to nearby schools, including Andrew Buchanan and Falling Spring, for the 2010-2011 school year.

Coldbrook at a Glance

Year opened: 1955

2009-2010 enrollment: 121

Foundation Funds LEARNING

SINCE ITS INCEPTION in 1990, the CASD Foundation has awarded more than $200,000 in student scholarships and $450,000 in teacher grants from its $1 million endowment. The Foundation board includes three school board directors and nine other district residents.

In 2009-2010, the Foundation awarded 47 scholarships to high school students totaling $60,300. It also awarded 26 grants to teachers and staff totaling $70,460 for innovative programs and equipment not covered in the regular district budget.

For more information about how you can contribute to the Foundation's mission of enhancing students' educational opportunities, visit www.chambersburg.k12.pa.us/foundation.

These Flip digital video cameras were purchased with a Foundation grant for collaborative projects in advanced science classes at CASHS.

ACADEMIC HALL OF FAME

Under a new initiative to highlight school success and student achievement, many of our schools were recognized in CASD's 1st Annual Academic Achievement Awards this spring. These awards were based on students' strong performance during last year's PSSA exams.

Academic Performance Award: South Hamilton

Recognized the school with the top academic performance in all subject areas

Academic Growth Award: Faust

Recognized the school with the largest growth in all subject areas

All Means All Award: Scotland

Recognized the school with the greatest growth for all students

Exemplary Reading Performance: Faust

Exemplary Reading Performance: Coldbrook

Outstanding Reading Growth: Scotland

Outstanding Reading Growth: Buchanan

Exemplary Math Performance: Fayetteville

Exemplary Math Performance: Coldbrook

Outstanding Math Growth: Hamilton Heights

Outstanding Math Growth: Grandview

Exemplary Science Performance: Hamilton Heights

Exemplary Science Performance: Falling Spring

Exemplary Writing Performance: CASHS

Exemplary Writing Performance: Coldbrook

Performance awards were given to the large and small schools with the best performance in each subject area on the PSSAs. Growth awards recognized the large and small schools that demonstrated the most growth from the previous year in each subject area.

Keeping STUDENTS SAFE

■ Our workplace safety committee has begun visiting each building in the district to conduct safety inspections. This is an evolving program, and our goal is to make all the buildings safer for students and staff.

■ In December, CASHS students heard a presentation about sexting—the sending of sexually explicit images via cell phone. The presentation highlighted possible disciplinary and legal penalties students may face when participating in this activity.

■ The Pennsylvania Attorney General's Office was invited into our buildings four times this school year to cover topics ranging from cyber crimes to bullying.

■ An online bullying reporting system will be up and running by the fall of 2010. Students in all schools will be able to access the system at www.chambersburg.k12.pa.us/safeschools and report bullying or harassment incidents that they witness.

Retired Waynesboro police officer Lynn Lowman joined the district in February 2010 as the new school resource officer for CASHS, Faust, and CAMS. Lowman holds an associate's degree in criminology from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. "I want students to think before they act," he says. "I want to help them understand the consequences of their actions before they're charged with a crime."

Growing GREENER

LESS THAN THREE YEARS after partnering with Energy Education to reduce our energy consumption district-wide, CASD surpassed the $1 million mark in energy savings in April 2010. Our electric, gas, and oil savings have reached $1,205,552.

For our stewardship efforts, we've earned the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Energy Star for superior energy efficiency. In the last 10 years, there have been only 97 Energy Star leaders in the United States, and CASD is one of them! In addition, 15 of our buildings earned the 2009 Energy Star label for using 40% less energy on average than typical buildings.

Our total energy conservation since September 2007 equates to 193,828 tree seedlings growing for 10 years or 1,360 automobiles being taken off the road for one year.

FRANKLIN COUNTY C&TC

Our district continues to plan for the construction of a career magnet school at the Franklin County Career and Technology Center. This center will house approximately 300 students each semester for their academics.

Planned renovations to the existing facility are also under way, and Chambersburg has joined the other participating FCCTC school districts in our commitment to improving and upgrading the career and technology learning facility for our students.

Notes of EXCELLENCE

EACH YEAR, students audition for the chance to sing or play an instrument at festivals sponsored by the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association. This year the following CASHS students beat out fellow student musicians in 15 counties to perform at regional festivals:

Chorus: Emily Rice (piano accompanist), Christa Sipes (alto)

Band: Preston Charlesworth (tuba), Emily Rice (clarinet), Andrew Stadler (trumpet), Kristen Stoler (trumpet), Ashley Wyrick (clarinet)

In addition to performing at the regional level, Christa Sipes was selected for state chorus, Andrew Stadler was selected for state symphonic concert band, and Kristen Stoler and Ashley Wyrick were selected for state wind ensemble.

Members of the CASHS band play at this year's graduation ceremony.
