

1st Grade Science & Social Studies Pacing Guide

|   |  |                 |   |           |                  |              |                                    |           |                                     |
|---|--|-----------------|---|-----------|------------------|--------------|------------------------------------|-----------|-------------------------------------|
| 4 Weeks   | 2 Weeks  | 6 Weeks         | November and December                                       | 2 Weeks   | 6 Weeks          | 4 Weeks      | 1 Week                             | 2 Weeks   | Remaining Weeks                     |
| Civics and Government-Rules and LawsHistory-Conflict Resolution | Life Science-Plant Parts (Apples and Pumpkins) | Earth and Space | Civics and Government-National Holidays/Winter Holidays | Geography | Physical Science | Life Science | Civics and Government-U.S. Symbols | Economics | Spiral Review and Enrichment Topics |

** The majority of History: Historic Events and Figures is aligned to be in November and December but it is anticipated that you still teach holidays and historic figures as appropriate throughout the year. (examples: MLK in January, Presidents in February, etc.)

Remaining Weeks: This is intended to allow you flexibility in covering additional units, missed topics, or adding enrichment activities.